PRIVACY STATEMENT AND CONSENT

In this statement, personal information includes information about your credit history (including information about your past experiences with us and other lenders, the kinds of credit products you have had or sought, how you have managed your obligations, information contained in a credit report about you, and information about your credit worthiness that has been derived from a credit report about you).

You agree that personal information you supply to BCU Bank, a division of Police & Nurses Limited as part of this application may be held and used by us to assess and process the application, execute your instructions, comply with legislative or regulatory requirements and contact you, if necessary, to complete your application and advise you of other products and services that may be of interest to you unless you ask us not to.

When you give us personal information about another person you represent that you are authorised to do so and agree to inform the person who we are, that we will use and disclose the information for the relevant purpose, that they can access the information we hold about them and of the contents of this Privacy Statement and Consent. We are required by the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 to collect information to identify you, and by the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009 to learn about and verify your financial situation. Without your information we may not be able to provide a facility.

You agree we may collect personal information about you from, and/or disclose it to, financial institutions, credit providers (including for the purpose of assessing your application), credit reporting bodies (CRB's), our related bodies corporate, agents and contractors, organisations for verifying your identity, your agents, law enforcement, regulatory and government bodies, payment system operators, your and our insurers or prospective insurers and their underwriters, any person we consider necessary to execute your instructions. In particular, we may disclose to a CRB any failure by you to meet your payment obligations in relation to consumer credit and the fact that you have committed fraud or other serious credit infringement.

Further, to enable us to verify your identity, we may disclose your name, date of birth and residential address to a CRB for the purpose of obtaining an assessment of whether that personal information matches information held by the CRB. You agree to us requesting, and providing your personal information for, such as assessment. The CRB we use is Equifax, whose privacy policy (which explains how Equifax manages credit information) and contact details are www.equifax.com/Privacy. CRBs may include information which we provide in reports to other credit providers to assist them to assess your creditworthiness.

You can ask a CRB not to use or disclose credit information it holds about you for a period of 21 days (called a "ban period") without your consent if you believe on reasonable grounds that you have been or are likely to be a victim of fraud, including identity fraud you. You agree to us accessing your personal information (including consumer credit information) held with a CRB, even if there is a ban period in place, for the purposes of assessing an application for credit or in order to collect overdue payments.

CRBs may use credit information they hold to respond to requests from us or other credit providers to "pre-screen" you for direct marketing. You can ask a CRB not to do this. However, you may still receive direct marketing from us (unless you ask us not to) that has not been "pre-screened".

We may disclose your personal information to our systems support and administrative service providers located overseas. The countries to which this information may be disclosed may include the Philippines, Netherlands, India and the United Kingdom. See our Privacy Policy for more information.

You have rights to access and seek correction of personal information we hold about you, in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 and make a complaint about a breach of your privacy rights, by contacting our Member Advocate on 1300 228 228 or at member.engagement@bcu.com.au.

Our Privacy Policy contains information about how you may do these things and how we deal with complaints. Our Privacy Policy is available at www.bcu.com.au.
