WARNING – PROTECT YOURSELF FROM FRAUD AND SCAMS

Do you know who you are sending money to?

When you send money, you should be absolutely certain that you know who your receiver (the beneficiary) is and what the transfer will be used for. Fraudsters and scammers target people using any means they can, often pretending to be from the government, banks or trusted organisations. Most scams are perpetrated by scammers contacting the victim online or via a telephone call.

If this payment is in relation to a recent online or telephone communication, are you satisfied that this is a legitimate payment request? If in doubt, please check or seek out independent assistance. Some examples where you should exercise caution before proceeding with a transfer include:

- To an individual you have only met online and not in person (for example, an online dating app).
- For an emergency situation you have not confirmed.
- For an online shopping purchase.
- For a deposit or payment into a crypto-currency or other investment scheme.
- For anti-virus protection.
- For a deposit or payment on a rental property.
- For a charity donation.
- To resolve an immigration or visa matter.
- To claim lottery or prize winnings.
- To pay taxes.
- To pay for something in response to a telemarketing call.

Please note that in processing an international transfer, we will only rely on the bank account number and beneficiary bank details you provide. We do not rely on the bank account name. You should check the details provided carefully because if the payment is paid to an incorrect account and/or beneficiary, it may not be possible to recover it. Please note that we do not check that the payment details are correct or that the account name matches the account number. If you transfer money, the person you are sending it to gets the money quickly. After the money is paid, we may not be able to seek a refund, even if you are the victim of fraud, except under limited circumstances. If you are unsure, please speak to one of our friendly team members or visit www.scamwatch.gov.au for more information on scams involving overseas payments.
