Collection & use of your information

We collect and use your information to:

- provide you with membership benefits, financial services and products or information about those benefits, services and products
- provide you with information about financial services and products from 3rd parties we have arrangements with
- conduct market and demographic research in relation to the products and services you and other members acquire from us
- establish your eligibility for a loan
- establish your capacity to repay a loan.

The law also requires us to collect and hold your information:

- for our register of members under the Corporations Act
- to verify your identity under the AML/CTF Act
- to assess your capacity to pay a loan under the National Consumer Credit Protection Act.

How we collect your information

We will collect information about you and your financial position from you directly.

When you apply for a loan, we will collect information about your credit history from a credit reporting body.

How you can access your information

You can request access to your information at any time.

What if you do not wish to provide us with information?

If you do not give us the information we require, we may not be able to admit you to membership or provide you with the financial service or product you have applied for.

Providing your information to credit reporting bodies

The credit reporting bodies we disclose information to are Equifax, Illion and Experian.

If you do not make your repayments when they fall due or commit a serious credit infringement, we may disclose this to any or all of these credit reporting bodies.

Any information we provide to these credit reporting bodies will be included in reports provided to credit providers to help them to assess your creditworthiness.

You can ask these credit reporting bodies not to use your information for pre-screening of direct marketing by a credit provider. You can also ask them not to use or disclose your information if you reasonably believe that you have been or are likely to be a victim of fraud.

Each credit reporting bodies' policy on the management of information is available at:
